FREE LEGAL AID FOR RETURNEES UPON READMISSION AGREEMENTS

"Promotion and Protection of Property Rights of Internally Displaced People, Refugees and Returnees Upon Readmission Agreements" Project, which is used by Office for Kosovo and Metohija with the Government of Republic of Serbia, in cooperation with Commissariat for Refugees and Migration, organizes provision of free legal aid to readmitted returnees.

Expert team of the Project consisting of interns, young legal counsels and experienced lawyers, is at disposal for the following:

- Providing information about rights and obligations under Strategy for reintegration of returnees upon readmission agreements and supporting legislation
- Legal advices in the process of obtaining personal documents
- Professional assistance in the process of obtaining documents:
 - birth certificate,
 - certificate of citizenship,
 - ID card,
 - other documents to exercise rights.

ABOUT PROJECT

The project is realized with financial support of European Union. Key project activities are aimed at providing adequate access to information and efficient legal aid which is necessary for users to exercise their rights. Free legal aid also includes free representation of internally displaced people from Kosovo and Metohija, refugees and returnees upon readmission agreements before competent authorities, organizations and institutions in the Republic of Serbia.

Expert team includes experienced legal counsels, but also a team of young lawyers which will, with support and under supervision of older lawyers and attorneys, gain precious experience from the Project regarding provision of legal aid and assistance to internally displaced people from Kosovo and Metohija, refugees and readmitted returnees.
